URPP Dynamics of Healthy Aging

Personality and Healthy Aging

Workshop at the URPP Dynamics of Healthy Aging
July 14-16, 2018

Organized by
Mathias Allemand & Lara Keller, University of Zurich
Patrick L. Hill, Washington University in St. Louis, USA

Speakers and Discussants
Damaris Aschwanden, University of Zurich
David M. Condon, Northwestern University, USA
Michelle Fillekes, University of Zurich
Joshua J. Jackson, Washington University in St. Louis, USA
Mike Martin, University of Zurich
Matthias R. Mehl, University of Arizona, USA
Daniel K. Mroczek, Northwestern University, USA
Brennan R. Payne, University of Utah, USA
Urte Scholz, University of Zurich
Mirjam Stieger, University of Zurich
Sara J. Weston, Northwestern University, USA

Participants
Researchers, PhD students, students who are interested in the topic of the workshop
(number of participants including speakers and discussants: max. 35 individuals)

Workshop Venue
Andreasstrasse 15, 8050 Zurich
Room: AND 4 55/4 57 (4th floor)
Goals and Themes of the Workshop

Promoting healthy aging in adulthood and maintaining health-related quality of life in old age is an important goal for the individual, society, and aging research. One promising avenue to a better understanding of the dynamics of healthy aging is to examine the role of personality traits and personality-related processes. This workshop is designed to bring together scholars from the United States and Switzerland to meet and discuss new conceptual/theoretical and methodological directions, analytical methods, and applied perspectives related to the role of personality in healthy aging. Talks and discussions of the workshop relate to three themes: (a) assessment of personality traits, dynamic processes and personality development during adulthood and in daily life, (b) the longitudinal (over time) associations between personality and healthy aging outcomes, and (c) the potential impact and design of personality-centered interventions to promote healthy aging. A further goal of this workshop is to discuss future directions and collaborative research initiatives.

Program Schedule

Saturday, July 14:

19:00  Informal Dinner for Speakers and Discussants

Sunday, July 15:

09:15  Welcome and Introduction
       Patrick L. Hill & Mathias Allemand

09:30  Broad, Narrow, and Criterion-Specific Approaches to Individual Differences Assessment for Health-Related Outcomes
       David M. Condon

10:30  Coffee break

11:00  Leveraging Ambulatory Assessments to Examine Personality and Health Processes
       Joshua J. Jackson

12:00  Lunch

13:00  Exploring the Interaction of Mobility and Personality for Healthy Aging: Conceptual and Assessment Issues
       Michelle Fillekes

14:00  Coordinated Data Analysis: An Advanced Method for the Study of Personality and Health
       Sara J. Weston

15:00  Coffee break
15:30  A Lifespan Perspective on the Interconnections between Personality, Health, and Optimal Aging
Daniel K. Mroczek

16:30  Discussion of the Presented Research and Topics
Matthias Mehl & Mike Martin

17:30  Future Directions and Collaborative Research Initiatives – Part I
Patrick L Hill, Damaris Aschwanden & Mathias Allemand

Monday, July 16:

09:00  Personality and Cognitive Health in Aging
Brennan R. Payne

10:00  Demo: The PEACH, a Smartphone- and Conversational Agent-Based Coaching Intervention for Intentional Personality Change
Mirjam Stieger

10:30  Coffee break

11:00  Personality-Informed Interventions to Promote Cognitive, Physical and Social Activities for Healthy Aging: Conceptual Ideas and Study Design
Damaris Aschwanden

12:00  Discussion of the Presented Research and Topics
Urte Scholtz

12:30  Lunch

13:30  Future Directions and Collaborative Research Initiatives – Part II
Patrick L Hill, Damaris Aschwanden & Mathias Allemand

15:15  Coffee break

16:15  Public lecture: Aging Purposefully: How Having a Life Direction Promotes Success in Old Age (room: AND 3 02/3 06, 3rd floor)
Patrick L. Hill

Registration

For registration, send an email to Lara Keller (lara.keller2@uzh.ch). Please indicate your name, first name and work address. Please send your registration no later than June 30.

Sponsors:
Swiss National Science Foundation (SNSF)
URPP Dynamics of Healthy Aging
Differential Healthy Aging Lab